

Belvidere-Delaware Valley Class 15

Staff Photo

WASHINGTON MIDGET GRIDDEERS: Pictured above is the Washington team of the Warren County Midget Football League. Front row, left to right: George Saunders, Donald Carswell, Mark Schumann, Harry Latterman, Bruce Marason, Raymond Carling, Jay Pence, Scott Castner, Ron Allegher, Bill Tobagyo, Mike Masonior. Middle row: Dick Stover, Charles Roseberry, Tom Rush, Lou Hoppock, Joe Vasko, Jim Rush, Ralph Banghart, Robert Dux, Fred Elvin, Howard Lee, Gordon Haney, Dale Keenan. Top row: Robert Dux and James Rapsis, assistant coaches; J. Meixell, Dick Captor, Bruce Homes, Fletcher Wright, trainer; Dean Sadowski, Corky Castner, Jack Kinsey, Barry Haney, Jim Coleman, Fred Deluca, Fred Boehning, head coach, and Harry Castner, assistant coach.

TOSS OF THE COIN: Co High School football teams at start of the game Friday night Washburn and Phil Bronico, B. John Lee and Lew Sabatini, W.

Second Win for Regional, Conquers West Morris, 13-6

ANNANDALE—North Hunterdon High accomplished its second straight grid verdict of the young season last Saturday morning up with a 13-6 triumph over stubborn West Morris on eased across from the 1-foot line. The big ground gainer in this drive was a 17-yard scamper by Marty McCormick. Jerry Johnson added the conversion on a placement. Dale Winter set up North

7 plays to hit paydirt. Frank D'Amato's aerial to Blaine from 12 yards-out was good for the score. Jack Hyde's try for the point was no good. Throughout the second and third periods, the teams battled

Hackettstown Wins, 18-0, Over Bernardsville

HACKETTSTOWN — Hackettstown High made Bernardsville its second straight shutout victim of the campaign last Saturday with an 18-0 triumph on the home field. Limited to one touchdown

Belvidere R Streaks Tak

WASHINGTON — Belvidere High capped its second straight victory of the season this past Friday night with a 35-0 Little Four Conference route of Washington on a rain-soaked Washington gridiron.

Stu Fr